

GP Bullhound announces winners of Media Momentum 2011 Awards

London, 20 May 2011 – Last night GP Bullhound announced the winners of the Media Momentum 2011 Awards, demonstrating that the European digital media economy is growing faster than ever despite the current market conditions.

The event, now in its seventh year, is organised by GP Bullhound, the research-centric investment bank specialising in technology, media and telecommunications.

Nearly 150 of Europe's most influential decision makers from the digital media industry attended the GP Bullhound awards ceremony sponsored by Schroders Private Banking, Acton Capital Partners and Kemp Little. The compere for the evening was TV presenter Barbara Campos, and the keynote speaker was Mark Sebba, CEO of NET-A-PORTER.

Winners in the eight categories were revealed at the awards ceremony and dinner which took place at the W Hotel, Barcelona. The complete list of award winners for 2011 is:

- Unique Leadership Award: Skrill
- Best Global Potential Award: Skrill
- Most Innovative Company Award: Softkinetic
- Judges Award: Wonga
- Fastest Growing Company Award: InSkin
- Fastest Growing Larger Company Award: Essence
- Media Momentum Woman of the Year: Holly Tucker and Sophie Cornish (Notonthehighstreet)
- Media Momentum Man of the Year: Gianluca D'Agostino (Neomobile)

Manish Madhvani, Founding Partner at GP Bullhound and Chairman of the Media Momentum 2011 Awards judging panel, said: "We are proud to announce the winners of this year's awards. As in past years, the Media Momentum Awards exist to identify excellence, and I would like to congratulate all of the winners and nominees. We have worked with many of the Top 50 companies over the years on capital raising and trade sales and it is impressive to see how the European digital economy is creating billions of Euros of shareholder value and becoming a major driver of growth in a difficult economic environment."
